Subject: Tim O'Hare is a Turncoat to Farmers Branch & Texas

Watch the following video first regarding Tim O'Hare, former mayor of Farmers Branch.

We can be compassionate towards the children of Central America by immediately and HUMANELY deporting these children back to their country of origin. Are we compassionate when the federal government keeps these kids locked up for months in holding cells with MS-13 gang members, or with 22-year olds who are posing as high school students?

This is a Saul Alinsky tactic started by President Obama. He created this crisis. They use two things as weapons: minorities and children. If you are called a "racist" then you must shut up. If children are involved, you must automatically fork over billions of dollars. It's for the children, right? So shut up and hand over the money.

President "The Amateur" Obama played America, and all its taxpayers, for fools. These children should be put on military ships, cruise liners, and planes and taken home. If asked about what we should do, I quote,

"Render unto Caesars what is Caesars. Render unto God what is God's". We can still be spiritual; we can still be Christians and follow the Rule of Law. Was the Rule of Law followed? No, our humane laws on the books were not, and the world is laughing at us.

Tim O'Hare is becoming a RINO who is looking to the future for political office, and the City of Farmers Branch was in the way. Guess what? You are no longer in the way; you are just forgotten. You were just thrown under the bus.

Doing the right thing means nothing anymore, but political power and sound bytes is the present state of America. Lady Liberty screams out in agony at the injustice to its citizens and legal residents.

I turn my back to Tim O'Hare. I may be leaving Farmers Branch someday (as he did), but it won't be because I'm a turncoat to America's Rule of Law. Even in defeat of Ordinance 2952, I am triumphant. I fought for my city, my State of Texas, and the United States of America. My honor is intact.
